

Home Seller Questionnaire

Home Seller Questionnaire

Are you thinking about selling your home? Or perhaps you've already decided to sell and you're looking for an agent (or new agent) to help you achieve your home sale goals.

Use the following list of questions to better track your current status in the home sale process.

Don't worry if you don't have all the information, just do the best you can. We can help you with any questions you can't answer.

Knowing the answers to these questions will make the process much simpler and smoother. That means stress for you!

What is Your Current Status

Is your home currently on the market? _____

If so, for how many days/months? _____

Are you currently working with an agent/broker? _____

If yes, please name your current agent. _____

Will you need to purchase a new property before selling your current property? _____

If so, how far along is your home search? _____

Do you currently live on the property? _____

Do you plan on moving out of the home before listing or showing the property to buyers?

How quickly do you want to sell your home? _____

If you were to accept an offer tomorrow, how quickly could you move out and close?
